Subject: Genomatica Litigation

Dear Nick,

I hope this email finds you well. I appreciate your continuous support on this litigation .

This morning, I had a telephone call with Jennifer and Josh mainly concerning how to prepare for the deposition and how to make a counter proposal against Genomatica . In the call, I was surprised to hear that, as of January 7, Josh had already provided the counter proposal of $2.3MM payable in 30 days.

As you see the below email dated January 5, Jennifer mentioned that she was discussing with you and Josh about the counter proposal and she would send us a recommendation as soon as possible .

So, we have been waiting for the recommendation from Jennifer .

Personally, I believe that $2.3MM offer is not so bad. But some MCC members are a little upset by the fact that Josh made it without advising us of the offer .

I appreciate that you check what happened in the process of that offer . There might be miscommunication between us.

But please kindly supervise Jennifer (and Josh) if the process was not appropriate .

Please understand that we do not want that this kind of thing happen again in the future.

Thank you for your continuous support on this .
Best regards,
Tomoji

Dear Tomoji,
Thank you for your email. We are still discussing the offer among Josh, Nick and myself and we are not ready to respond with a counter proposal. We will send you our recommendation as soon as possible.

Regards,

Dear Jennifer,

We discussed internally on the settlement.
Please negotiate with GI. Our counter proposal should be $2.5MM, payable in two installments over 6 months, as suggested by Josh.
